Anti-Corruption Charter for Health Officials

As a Public Officer:
- Do not accept any gift, benefit or any other advantage from any member of the public for doing your duties
- Do not solicit any form of payment or commission from patients or their family members
- Do not let your personal interest interfere with the discharge of your official duties
- Do not favour anyone with whom you have official dealings
- Do not abuse/misuse your office to influence any person whatsoever for personal advantage
- Do not compromise your integrity in the course of your duties

As a Public Officer:
- Report any act of corruption that comes to your knowledge
- Disclose any possible situation of conflict of interests promptly and abstain from taking part in any proceedings
- Treat all persons you have official dealings with, equally, fairly and without fear or favour
- Always be loyal to and have the best interest of your organisation
- Acquaint yourself with the provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act 2002, as amended and the policies and framework governing the conduct of public officers
- Adhere strictly to the Code of Ethics for public officers
- Consult your superiors if in doubt, concerning any decision you have to take
- Always act in the public interest