BORDER CONTROL – YELLOW FEVER (2019) MAURITIUS

* Country requirement for Yellow Fever Vaccination Certificate at entry: NO

* WHO vaccination recommendation: NO

MALARIA

There is no malaria risk in Mauritius. No indigenous (cases of local origin) has been reported in the country in the last 5 (five) years.

No malaria prophylaxis is required.

HEPATITIS A, TYPHOID

The prevalence of these diseases is very low. There is no need to have any vaccinations against these diseases when proceeding to the country.

POLIOMYELITIS

No cases of Poliomyelitis has been reported since the early sixties.

FILARIASIS

There are no local cases of filariasis in Mauritius.

RABIES

There are no cases of Rabies in Mauritius.

Updated 23 August 2019