(2) (a) Every eligible employer shall, in respect of every eligible employee taking employment during the period starting on 1 July 2022 and ending on 30 June 2023, apply to the Director-General, within 15 days from the date the eligible employee takes up employment, for approval of the employee as an eligible employee, giving details of the employee and such other particulars as the Director-General may require.

(b) The Director-General shall approve or reject an application made under paragraph (a) after verifications on the basis of information available to him.

(c) The Director-General shall approve only the first 10,000 employees who are eligible employees and in respect of whom an application has been made under paragraph (a).

(3) (a) An eligible employer shall, for every month in respect of which an allowance is payable to an approved eligible employee, make an application electronically to the Director-General, in such form and manner as he may determine, giving details of each approved eligible employee and such other particulars as may be required by him for the payment of the allowance.

(b) No allowance shall be payable in respect of a month where the application under paragraph (a) is made by an employer 3 months after the end of that month.

(c) An employer shall, in an application made under paragraph (a), undertake to safeguard the employment of an approved eligible employee for a period of at least 3 years.

(d) The Director-General shall, within 10 working days from the end of the month in which the applications are received –

- (i) compile a list of applications received;
- (ii) verify the applications based on available information at the Authority; and

- (iii) transmit qualifying applications and amount of funds required to effect payment under the Scheme to the COVID-19 Solidarity Fund.

(4) (a) Subject to this Part, the Director-General shall, in respect of every approved eligible employee, pay to his employer an allowance equivalent to the basic wage or salary of that employee for that month, not exceeding 15,000 rupees, in the month he is employed and in the next 11 consecutive months immediately following the month of employment.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), an employee's basic wage or salary for a month shall be the basic wage or salary as declared by the employer in the monthly return submitted by him under section 7 of the Social Contribution and Social Benefits Act 2021 for that month.

(c) The Director-General may refuse to pay the allowance under this Part where an employer is not compliant, in respect, of an eligible employee, with his obligations under the Social Contribution and Social Benefits Act 2021, the National Savings Fund Act, the Human Resource Development Act and Part VIII of the Workers' Rights Act 2019.

(5) The Director-General shall –

(a) in respect of every approved eligible employee taking employment during the period starting on 1 July 2022 and ending on 31 December 2022 with an eligible employer, pay, in addition to the allowance payable under subsection (4) –

- (i) an additional sum for the month of December 2022 which is equivalent to one twelfth of the allowance

- payable to the eligible employee under subsection (4) for the period starting on 1 July 2022 and ending on 31 December 2022; and

- (b) in respect of every eligible employee taking employment after 31 December 2022, in addition to the allowance payable under subsection (4), pay an additional sum for the month of December 2023 which is equivalent to one twelfth of the allowance payable to the eligible employee under subsection (4) for the period starting on 1 January 2023 and ending on 31 December 2023.

(6) Where an employer has benefited from an allowance under this Part with respect to a month and with respect to an eligible employee and fails to pay the basic wage or salary of that employee for that month, the employer shall not be entitled to any allowance under this Part for any subsequent month and shall be liable to refund the allowance for that month to the Director-General.

(7) Where an employer has benefited from an allowance in excess of the amount to which he is entitled under this Part or has provided false, incorrect, incomplete or inaccurate information to the Director-General, the latter may recover the excess amount or allowance, as the case may be, in the same manner as income tax is recoverable under Part IVC of the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act.

(8) Where the Director-General determines that an employee in respect of whom an allowance has been paid under this Part has not worked for the employer to whom the allowance has been paid, the employer shall be liable to refund the total allowance that has been paid under this Part in respect of that employee.

(9) (a) The Director-General may, not later than 4 years after payment of an allowance is made under this Part, request any information or document from the employer or any employee to ascertain correctness of the information provided under this Part, the National Pensions Act or the Social Contribution and Social Benefits Act 2021, as applicable.

(b) The employer or any employee to whom a request is made under paragraph (a) shall provide the Director-General with such information and document as he may require.

(10) (a) Where an employer or his employee or any other person –

- (i) makes a false declaration to the Director-General to unduly benefit from an allowance under this Part; or
- (ii) refuses to give information under subsection (9) or gives false information under this Part, he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

(b) Where an employee, in respect of whom an allowance has been paid under this Part has not worked for the employer, he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

(11) (a) Any payment made under the Scheme shall be financed by the COVID-19 Solidarity Fund.

(b) The Director-General shall, on receipt of funds from the COVID-19 Solidarity Fund, effect payment in respect of eligible employees by bank transfer.

(12) Where the employer terminates the employment of an eligible employee before the end of the period of 3 years, he shall be liable to refund the total allowance that has been paid to him, under this Part, in respect of that eligible employee.

(13) The Minister may make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purpose of this Part.

The Social Aid Regulations 1984 are amended –

- (a) in regulation 15(1) –
- (i) in subparagraph (p) –
- (A) in sub subparagraph (ii), by deleting the word “paragraph” wherever it appears and replacing it by the word “subparagraph”;
- (B) by adding the following new sub subparagraph, the comma at the end of sub subparagraph (ii) being deleted and replaced by a semicolon –
- (ii) a surviving spouse allowance under subparagraph (v), and would have been eligible to receive social aid under section 3(1A) of the Act or subparagraph (o) if she were not in receipt of the surviving spouse allowance,
- (ii) by adding the following new subparagraph, the full stop at the end of subparagraph (u) being deleted and replaced by a semicolon –
- (v) an applicant who is, pursuant to section 4A (1) and (2) of the National Pensions Act, one of the surviving female spouses of a deceased person, a surviving spouse allowance, together with child allowance, for not more than 3 children, payable under the National Pensions Act, provided that –

- (i) the religious marriage is, in accordance with the Civil Status (Muslim Family Council) Regulations 2005, registered with the Muslim Family Council;
 - (ii) the applicant has not contracted any civil or religious marriage after the death of her spouse;
 - (iii) is under the age of 60; and
 - (iv) is not in receipt of –
 - (A) social aid under section 3(1A) of the Act or subparagraph (o) or (r); or
 - (B) an invalid's basic pension, a widow's basic pension or a survivor's pension under the National Pensions Act.
- (b) by adding the following new regulation –
- 18. (1) An application for a surviving spouse allowance under regulation 15(v) shall be –
- (a) made to the Permanent Secretary in such form as he may approve;

- (b) accompanied by a certificate from the Muslim Family Council certifying that the religious marriage of the surviving spouse has, pursuant to the Civil Status (Muslim Family Council) Regulations 2005, been registered;
- (c) made not later than 3 months after the date on which her religious marriage has been registered; and
- (d) accompanied by such other documents as the Permanent Secretary may, in the circumstances, require.

(2) Where the Permanent Secretary grants an application under paragraph (1), he shall, where the applicant is one of the surviving female spouses of a deceased person, pay to her a surviving spouse allowance, the amount of which shall, depending on the number of surviving female spouses, be divided in equal proportion to the rate of the widow's basic pension.

83. Civil Status (Muslim Family Council) Regulations 2005 amended

The Civil Status (Muslim Family Council) Regulations 2005 are amended –

- (a) in regulation 2, by adding the following new definition, the full stop at the end of the definition of “Council” being deleted and replaced by a semicolon – “surviving female spouse” means the surviving female spouse of a deceased person with whom she had contracted a religious marriage in accordance with Muslim rites.
- (b) in regulation 4, by deleting the words “shall, within 7 days of” and replacing them by the words “and both spouses to the marriage shall, not later than 21 days after”.

- (c) by inserting, after regulation 4, the following new regulation –
- 4A. (1) Where a religious marriage is celebrated in accordance with Muslim rites, other than civilly, during the period –
- (a) (i) starting on 1 January 1982 and ending on 13 November 1987; or
 - (ii) starting on 1 December 1990 and ending on 31 August 2022; and
 - (b) the religious marriage is, on 22 September 2022, not registered with the Council, both spouses or the surviving female spouse, as the case may be, may, not later than 31 December 2022, make an application to the Council for registration of the marriage.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) shall be made in the form set out in the First Schedule and shall –

- (a) be accompanied by all the supporting documents specified in the form; and
- (b) be supported by an affidavit in the form set out in the Second Schedule, solemnly affirmed or sworn by 2 witnesses, where one of the 2 witnesses shall be a public officer not below the level of Office Management Assistant, a police officer not below the rank of inspector or a member of a recognised professional body.

(3) Where the Council is satisfied that the religious marriage was duly celebrated, it shall register the marriage and issue a certificate thereof to the applicant.

- (d) by revoking regulation 5 and replacing it by the following regulation –

5. The Council shall –

- (a) on receipt of the particulars specified in regulation 4; or

- (b) on registering a marriage pursuant to regulation 4A, enter the particulars in the register kept under section 30(a) of the Act.
- (e) by inserting, after regulation 5, the following new regulation –
- 5A. Where a male person contracts a religious marriage in accordance with Muslim rites, without being civilly married, to more than one female person, the Council shall inform the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry responsible for the subject of social security.
- (f) by adding the First Schedule and Second Schedule set out in the Twelfth Schedule and Thirteenth Schedule to this Act, respectively.
